Here are a few more of the additions and insertions I had prepared but had not read and corrected. I do not send them to you in the expectation that you will use them. I will finish these up for the historical record anyway. I send them on the off chance that in the future one or more may have some usefulness to you. My file includes the documentation.